

Points	Rural	BIPOC-owned	Women-owned	Veteran-owned	Access to capital	Future viability	Ripple effect
High Priority	Meets the strict definition of rural in SB20-222	Majority-owned by BIPOC individual	Majority-owned by woman	Majority-owned by veteran	No prior access to federal, state or local COVID-19 assistance capital	Business model poised to flourish in the future	Business has a positive economic and/or social impact that ripples through its community
Medium Priority	Rural, but not within definition in SB20-222 ( https://energizecolorado.com/gap-fund/faq/#corural )	Minority-owned by BIPOC individuals or a nonprofit the majority of whose programs significantly impacts the small businesses owned by this priority group.	Minority-owned by a woman or a nonprofit the majority of whose programs significantly impacts the small businesses owned by this priority group.	Minority-owned by veterans or a nonprofit the majority of whose programs significantly impacts the small businesses owned by this priority group	Limited and insufficient prior access to federal, state or local COVID-19 assistance capital	Business model sustainable in the future	Business has a minor positive economic and/or social impact in its community
Low Priority	Not rural	Not owned by BIPOC individual	Not owned by woman	Not owned by veteran	Multiple prior awards of federal, state or local COVID-19 assistance capital	Questionable viability of the business model in the future	Business has an unknown impact in its community