

Points	Sole Proprietorship	Economically Distressed Area	Previous GF Grant Recipient	Rural	BIPOC-owned	Women-owned	Veteran-owned	Access to capital	Future viability	Ripple effect
2		Business resides within 2 or more of the economically distressed areas.		Meets the strict definition of rural in SB20-222	Majority-owned by BIPOC individual		Majority-owned by veteran	No prior access to federal, state or local COVID-19 assistance capital	Business model poised to flourish in the future	Business has a positive economic and/or social impact that ripples through its community
1	Is a regisitered sole-proprietorship business with the Colorado Secretary of State's Office.	Business resides within 1 of the economically distressed areas.	Previously received a Gap Fund grant but did not achieve the full eligible amount of funding.	Rural, but not within definition in SB20-222 [Definition needed]	Minority-owned by BIPOC individuals or a nonprofit the majority of whose programs significantly impacts the small businesses owned by this priority group.	Majority-owned by women	Minority-owned by veterans or a nonprofit the majority of whose programs significantly impacts the small businesses owned by this priority group	Limited and insufficient prior access to federal, state or local COVID-19 assistance capital	Business model sustainable in the future	Business has a minor positive economic and/or social positive impact in its community
0		Business does not reside within one of the economically distressed areas.		Not rural	Not owned by BIPOC individual	Not owned by woman or with minority-ownership	Not owned by veteran	Multiple prior awards of federal, state or local COVID-19 assistance capital	Questionable viability of the business model in the future	Business has an unknown impact in its community